REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

Representative to Congress:
Hon. Joseph Howell of Cache County.

Supreme Judge:
Judge J. E. Frick of Salt Lake.

GUILTY AND FEARLESS.

In Salt Lake, and a few contiguous counties, the political situation is clouded by the presence of a third party which has taken to itself the name of the American party.

In its ranks are to be found some of the best men in the commonwealth of Utah. Many of them are earnest and sincere, and have at heart the best interests of the state. They are fighting for what they think is a principle, and as citizens have the right to follow their convictions. We think they are mistaken in their methods, and that if there is anything to make right, it had best be accomplished by earnest work within the ranks of the Republican party, the party which was brought into existence nearly a half century ago for the express purpose of righting wrongs, and which has been grappling with and correcting evils all that time. We think that the American party as a party can never appeal successfully to a vast majority of the people of the state of Utah.

Certain politicians, carried away by the heat of political discussion, have said that if this new party is in any way successful that the Mormon people had better leave the state, for the reason that the law would be enforced to that end.

Such talk is the merest drivel. In the first place, the overwhelming majority of the Mormon people are law abiding, and as such can look any officer of the law in the face without fear. Only those need quake whose acts are amenable to the law.

In the second place, as was said above, it is utterly impossible that this local party can ever achieve any great success. Utah is naturally Republican, American party domination would mean that the tail would wag the dog. The material interests of the state demand that Republican principles prevail. Republicans are not to be led away by side issues. The bluster of its opponents is useless.

THE CANDIDATES.

The state convention of the Republican party in Utah has been held and the party's candidates are fairly in the field. Ex-Secretary of State Hammond has resigned from the state chairmanship and his place has been filled by O. J. Salisbury. A strong state committee has been formed, and an executive committee made up of resourceful republicans have been named to take immediate control of the campaign. This sums up the history of the republican party campaign of 1906 to date.

All there is left for republicans in Utah to do is to elect the ticket. Congressman Howell, who again becomes the standard bearer of the party, must be supported in that position. His defeat would be a slap in the face of the republican national administration. This administration has gone so far in behalf of the common people, it has done so much for the west, that a western republican cannot be true to himself and to his principles and support a candidate of a party opposed to Roosevelt.

The republican nominee for the Supreme Court, J. E. Frick, is one of the cleanest men in the state. He is an able man, a fair lawyer and a stalwart republican in every sense of the word. Before his nomination, this paper espoused his cause. We stated this and we state now, that as a man he was above machine or clique in the party. His choice for a place on the state ticket is a splendid one. He should be elected and we believe that he will be elected, and that for the next six years he will add luster to the Supreme Court of the state.

BOSS UTAH MINES.

Enough is already known of the metal output of Utah mines to prove that the present year will eclipse all others in its history. All of the persons and semi-precious metals are represented. In copper the state is fast coming to the front, as the banner producing state of the union. In lead it is rivaling Idaho, and Montana, and in gold and silver the increase will be as marked as in the others. Notwithstanding this, Nevada is cleaning the lion's share of attention by the investors.

The reason for this is not hard to explain. Every man who goes to the sage brush state joins the booster clubs, they sing its praises, it is the subject of their correspondence with the outside world.

This is as it should be. It is the kind of work that says, and right now is the time for Utah mining men to do likewise. Let us have many sections as rich in possibilities as any in Nevada. It has many camps which are in a measure neglected which if the proper attention were given them would give results as great. Marysville, in Plute county is one of them. State Line is another. Beaver county has others and Grand county another. A man who knows Nevada well, avers that Deep Creek has as fair possibilities as any that can be found in the neighboring state.

Let every Utahman form himself into a committee of one to boost for Utah mines and the thing will be done. It is one of those good things we cannot get too much of.

A GOOD TEAM.

Chairman Salisbury has been happy in the selection of his immediate aids in conducting the republican campaign this fall. Col. Squires has been appointed secretary and C. S. Young as assistant secretary. Both of these men are capable of performing any task that may be assigned to them. They make a strong team. One is an old war-horse of republicanism—a before-the-war republican—the other is a representative of the younger element in the party; both are true, both are tried. We say again they make a great team.

MARCH AS ONE.

The names of both the defeated candidates for the congressional nomination before the republican state convention, are to be found among those of the executive campaign committee. This is notice to all their friends to buckle down and work for the election of the state ticket. Republicans settle their differences at their conventions. Afterwards they march as one.

REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE.

Personnel of the Republican Executive Committee and Officers of State Committee:
O. J. Salisbury, Chairman; Wesley K. Walton, First Vice President; Joseph Stanford, Second Vice President; George B. Squires, Secretary; Briant S. Young, Assistant Secretary; A. H. Peabody, Treasurer.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Cutler, Salt Lake City; Arthur Pratt, Salt Lake City; Wesley K. Walton, Woodruff; C. E. Loose, Provo; Frank W. Fishburn, Brigham City; A. H. Peabody, Salt Lake City; George M. Cannon, Salt Lake City; Fred C. Jensen, Mt. Pleasant; T. E. Hulaniski, Ogden; J. H. Deming, Salt Lake City; James S. McBeth, Payson; Harry S. Joseph, Salt Lake City; James Christensen, Richfield; B. F. Ritter, Logan; J. J. Thomas, Salt Lake City; W. S. Lockhart, Park City; Gus J. Hendrix, Eureka; C. E. Loose, Member Republican National Committee; Joseph Howell, Member Congressional Campaign Committee.

AMUSEMENTS.

The delightful weather—almost summer in warmth—which has prevailed for the past week has caused a resumption of out-door amusements. Merry crowds have been going nightly to Saltair where the season of roller skating is at its height. Bicycle races, however, have ceased at the Salt Palace track for the season.

Plans are under way by the other resort owners to make the season of 1907 even greater than the one just passed away. To this end Cooney Island and other eastern resorts have been visited by the resort men for up-to-date attractions.

The Theatres.

The season has fairly opened at the Salt Lake theatre. During the past week James M. Brophy and a select cast presented "The Freedom of Suzanne" for three nights, while the latter portion of the week "The Education of Mr. Pipp" was presented by a company with the well known Digby Bell in the lead.

For the coming week The Stewart Opera company will hold the boards, presenting such attractions as "The

BOOST
Salt Lake!

A HINT TO THE INVESTOR.

SALT LAKE Real Estate is the safest, surest and best thing to buy in the whole wide west. It is cheap, too—far cheaper than it should be, considering resources, geographical location, rapidly developing tributary region, climate and the attractions of Salt Lake. The country around about is far ahead of Salt Lake. Salt Lake must and will catch up, and while it is catching up in values will double and good money be made.

EVERYBODY GET ON THE BAND WAGON!

BOOST!

That Utah has been languishing for a long time is a statement requiring no proof. Business has been dull, transactions sluggish and now something close, Salt Lake City, a financial pulse of the state, is awakening and its return to better conditions means that the entire state is about to get on its feet. On this point there is never a proper and legitimate presentation of an array of business houses which have sold and are now coming to a share of the benefits. One of the evidences of their reliability and stability is the fact that they are here and here to remain; also that they appreciate the usefulness of a newspaper's columns as aids to a great and long-desired end. This paper is with them and they are with the paper. Read what they have to say:

house is keeping up its attractions and a fine season is a foregone conclusion. The Lyric opposite the postoffice, is open to a stock company, and a capable one at that. "The Millionaire's Wife" has held the boards for the past week while during the coming week, the sensational comedy drama, "The Power of Truth" will be presented. This house is more popular than ever and bids fair to have the most successful season in its history.

The Little Bon Ton, on Main street, is keeping up its reputation as a dispenser of high class vaudeville. It would require a microscope to tell the difference between the bills presented at the Bon Ton and the Orpheum as regards merit. The price of admission is much less than half that asked by the State street house. People from the country would do well to see vaudeville at the Bon Ton, and cut the Orpheum out, and thus save an evening for the drama at the other houses.

ELECTION SPARKS.

(By our associate editor.)

Ohio Democrats are afraid to turn Mr. Bryan loose in their china shop. Nearly all the parties Wm. R. Hearst owns, have nominated him for Governor.

However, if the Democrats refuse to accept Mr. Bryan's governing railroad scheme, he can still organize an independence league.

TO REPUBLICANS.

We are anxious to have every Republican in close touch, and working in harmony with the Republican national congressional committee in favor of the election of a Republican congress.

The congressional campaign must be based on the administrative and legislative record of the party, and, that being so, Theodore Roosevelt's personality must be a central figure and his achievements a central thought in the campaign.

We desire to maintain the work of this campaign with popular subscriptions of One Dollar each from Republicans. To each subscriber we will send the Republican National Campaign Text Book and all documents issued by the committee.

Help us achieve a great victory. JAMES S. SHERMAN, Chairman.

Woman.

'Twas evening and the chirping birds Had fluttered off to bed. The western sun was blending hues In sapphire, gold and red.

He asked the maid to marry him— To be his own true wife. To tread with him the tangled ways That leads away through life!

She blushed and turned her eyes away— Those eyes of liquid blue— And flushed again as a rosy red As marked the sky-line hue!

She wondered if she loved her knight? She wasn't sure, she said. She questioned what the heart should say To bid a girl to wed!

She liked him and was happy, too. When he was by her side— And yet she hesitated still From blushing as his bride!

Her thoughts were in a troubled maze— He gave her such a start. She couldn't analyze her mind. She didn't know her heart!

He left her as the golden sun Was setting in the West. And made love to another maid And swore he loved her best!

The one he wooed and left behind Mourned all through life her part. And when she died, the neighbors said, 'Twas of a broken heart!
